

Camp That Love Built

FINANCIAL AID INFORMATION & APPLICATION

Our Financial Aid Process:

Our Financial Aid Committee carefully considers several factors: program availability, family income, medical expenses, average monthly expenses and any other circumstances.

It is a good idea to check local opportunities in your community such as family, friends, work, church, and etc. for assistance in raising partial or total funds needed to attend "Camp That Love Built".

Applications must be completed fully to be considered. If you have previously received financial aid, please do not assume that the same award can be offered again.

To be considered for financial aid your family must submit:

- Camper application
- Financial Aid application
- Attach a copy of your most recent federal income tax return OR if you receive SSI, a copy of your SSI confirmation letter. If you do not file: include statements from all sources of income for previous year including AFDC, trust, unemployment, family support, or outside agency financial assistance, etc.
- Registration fee. (Please note: If you wish to reserve a space at "Camp That Love Built" regardless of the outcome of your financial aid request, your application must include a non-refundable registration fee.)

Optional:

- Special Circumstances: If you wish to point out special circumstances of the family that is pertinent to this application (such as divorce, loss of job, pay decrease, etc.) to the scholarship committee, please complete the form attached to the application.

Based on a thorough review of the application the committee will determine financial assistance eligibility. You will be notified by telephone or mail within two (2) weeks if your application has been approved or if you need to submit additional information.
